Meet Vivien Whittle

Blue Roo's Trusted Administration and Social Media Officer

Viv Whittle handles many day-to-day operations at Blue Roo, but her skills go far beyond typical administrative duties.

With strong experience in performing arts administration and social media, Viv also boasts a rich film, stage, and theatre background. Since joining the Australian Acting Academy in Brisbane in 2003, she has performed with Queensland Actor's Playhouse, Growl Theatre, and The Curators, earning critical acclaim.

Viv holds a Bachelor of Creative Industries from QUT and has experience as a producer. She co-produced "Plucked" for the 2021 Anywhere Festival, winning the People's Choice Award. In 2022, she co-starred in "Good Times and That's Ok," which won Best Queensland Short Film and the People's Choice at the Australian Independent Film Festival.

Thanks to Viv, who always provides service with a smile.

Friends of Blue Roo: Clint Bolster

Spotlight on Clint Bolster

A Friend of Blue Roo!

CLINT BOLSTER is a Clown, Physical Actor, Mask Theatre Specialist, Stilt Performer & Trainer, and Teaching Artist from Brisbane, Queensland. With 20 years of experience, Clint has developed new works and trained extensively. He performs regularly in Australia and internationally in the United Kingdom, Europe, Singapore, Hong Kong, and Japan.

Clint's repertoire is highly active throughout Australia, New Zealand, and Asia, with extensive annual programming in regional Australia, especially in community, cultural, and education sectors. He has a robust local and international network and his creations are represented by over 70 international production houses and arts agencies, reaching a global audience of millions.

Clint was recently accepted into the Cirque Du Soleil database of Clowns and is in the 2022/2023 Australian Tour of Slavas' Snow Show. He is a proud Queensland Member and Mentor for The Media, Entertainment and Arts Alliance, and a Board Member for Indel-Ability Arts. For more information, visit his webpage.

We Asked Clint: Why Clowning and Comedy?

Laughter is more than joy—it's a key to self-expression, freedom, revelation, and resilience. In this program, we unlock the magic of laughter to foster play, expression, and discovery in every performer.

Unleash Your Inner Clown with Clint and the Blue Roo Theatre Company!

Support Blue Roo

2024 FUND RAISING CAMPAIGN

*Become a Friend of Blue
Roo!*

*Sponsor, Donate,
Support*

We are working hard with the support of Arts Queensland and the Friends of Blue Roo to empower people with disabilities who are passionate about the performing arts. Our mission is to provide opportunities for them to participate in, learn, and lead future stage and digital productions through subsidised skills development and 'on-the-job' mentoring in a safe and joyful environment. We would greatly appreciate your support as a donor or sponsor.

Note:

Please state your name or organisation and if the donation is for Brisbane (BR) or South Burnett (SB) when making your donation. Please also email us at info@bluerootheatre.org.au so we know where to send your ATO tax receipt. Thanks.

*Keep an eye out for news on our October Launch and Fundraising Celebration!
More information to come via social media and the Spring Newsletter.*

Team Triumphs

Cherie has done it again! She has been busy promoting Blue Roo in the South Burnett region. This post featured on Facebook recently (Thanks to Kathy Duff and the South Burnett Council)

Cr Linda Little, Deputy Mayor Danita Potter & I met an inspirational lady yesterday named Cherie Watson who is working to start a disability theatre group in the South Burnett. Cherie has a disability and theatre has helped build her confidence so now she wants to help others.

Cherie has the backing of a not for profit group called Blue Roo based in Brisbane where Cherie got started. Anyone who is interested in getting involved or helping can email info@bluerootheatre.org.au. (Kathy Duff – Facebook)

2024 Pathways to Performance Theatre Program

Term 2 Registrations now open!

- The Pathways to Performance Program is open to performers of all abilities and skill levels.
- Join us on Thursday afternoons from 12.30 pm to 3.30 pm
- You will develop narrative skills, acting techniques, stage craft and learn in a team setting that is safe, engaging and fun!
- Every performer in the program will help shape public performances under the guidance of some of the best independent artists and Directors in Queensland.
- As you learn, you perform more often throughout the year in different types of public settings.
- Each term you will have the opportunity to perform in theatres and public spaces in professional costumes, telling stories you helped to design.
- You will also have the opportunity to tour – spreading the joy to Queensland schools and regional communities.

Meet new friends! Laugh together! Wow yourself and the world!
